A-kon 2K Perfect Memory part 2

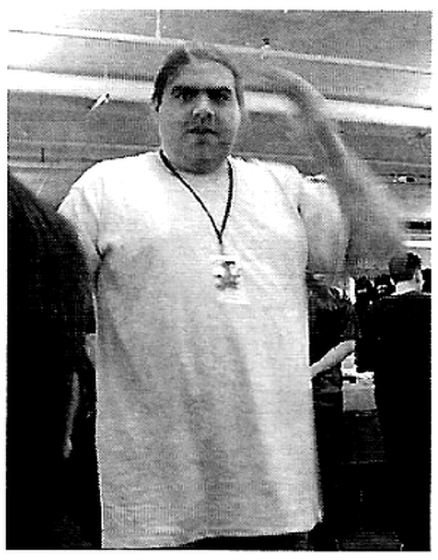

Part two of our A-kon visual report. Lots of costumes this year. We caught some of them in the dealer's room!

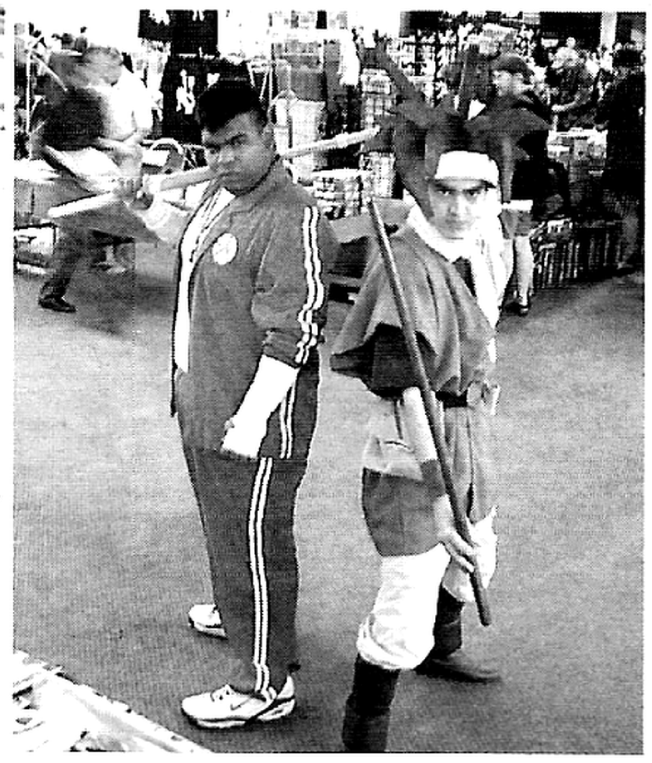

▲ Daniel Fu, artist of the upcoming Radio book "Love Bites".

More hall costumes! ▶ These two jokers (Gabriel San Miguel and Chuck Ritchie) are from the San Antonio Animation Society.

▲ Sailor Moon was as popular as ever this year.

Matt High and Will Allison, Radio Comix staffers, scan the con schedule for interesting panels. ▲

◀ The red-clad Joe Rosales was also spotted in Artist Alley, as photogenic as ever!

ABOUT THE ARTISTS!

in alphabetical order

Will Allison (pg. 2): Will is the writer/artist of such titles as Pervert Club and Trouble Express, as well as short pieces in Mangaphile. He is currently working on a new ongoing series for Radio Comix! Will does not enjoy sand in his shorts.

Melissa Andreoletti (pg. 3): Melissa is a Texas-based fan artist. This is her Radio Comix debut! She hopes readers will enjoy her art!

Scotty Arsenault (pg. 4): Scotty is the artist of "Heebas" in Furrlough, in addition to handling the art chores on Tales of the Fehnnik! In his spare time, he makes flash animations and manages Yerf, the online squeaky clean furry art archive. (www.yerf.com)

Richard Bartrop (pg. 5): Richard is best known for his science-fiction saga, Zaibatsu Tears, currently being published by Limelight Publishing. His work has also appeared in previous issues of Hit the Beach and Furrlough.

Max the Black Rabbit (pg. 6): "Max" is known for his sexy and buff characters and his work on The Extinctioners comic from Shanda Fantasy Arts. He is currently working on a story featuring his popular character Zig Zag for Genus, when he isn't being taken over by the DreamCast.

Joyceanna Brock (pg. 7): Joyceanna has been a regular contributor to the Radio Comix line, with work appearing in Furrlough, Milk, Hit the Beach, and most often, Genus, where she works on "Collars & Cuffs".

Guy Brownlee & Edith DeGolyer (pg. 8): Guy and Edith are very active in the Texas fan scene, participating in conventions, art shows and fan publications! Edith has run many an artshow and is quite the patron of the arts, and Guy is currently obsessed with spreading the word about Japanese pop stars to the masses. This is their Radio Comix debut!

Cause-B (pg. 9): Cause-B is a grafitti artist/spray-paint muralist based in Seattle. He likes those kneesocks with the two stripes at the top. Lately, he's been trekking around protesting what the evil world bank is up to. He's Vegan and this is his Radio Comix debut!

Dennis Clark (pg. 10): Dennis has been a regular fixture in the independent comics scene for many years now. He is best known to Radio readers for his work in Furrlough and Genus ("Collars & Cuffs"), though he has also done work for Shanda Fantasy Arts and self-published a ton of stuff. He has also contibuted to many fanzines and is just an all around nice guy.

Comet (pg. 11): Comet is a Japanese artist making his American debut here in Hit the Beach! He works as a video game character designer for the PlayStation 2 and is connected to TRUMP's Team Shuffle fan circle. Comet's beautiful color work will soon be seen on the cover of Genus!

Dark Natasha (pg. 12): The mysterious and talented Natasha is primarily a fantasy illustrator, but her beautiful paintings have graced the covers of Furrlough and Wild Life (Antarctic Press) and her comic work has appeared in Genus. She is also a sculptor and dedicated costumer and more of her various creative works can be seen at http://www.darknatasha.com/darknatasha/index.html

Brenda DiAntonis (pg. 13): Brenda is a newer artist on the scene and a talent to watch! Drawing under the name XianJaguar, her work can be seen at funny animal conventions on the West coast, as well as on the Yerf archive. This is her Radio Comix debut!

Fujioka-Kenki (pg. 14): Fujioka-Kenki is a Japanese manga and doujinshi artist regularly featured in TRUMP's Book of the Beast. He makes his American debut in this issue and hopes fans will like his work. He enjoys the Power Puff Girls.

Megan Giles (pg. 15): Megan makes her Radio Comix debut in this issue, though her art has been popular at conventions and on the Yerf archive for quite some time now! Expect to see more from this talented lady in the future! She likes tigers and ermine skins.

Brandon Graham (pg. 16): Brandon is the artist of the brilliant science fiction mystery Universe So Big, as well as short stories for Milk and A-Bomb (Anthill Comics). His unusual art stylings have attracted much attention in grafitti and fashion circles. He currently resides in the urban squalor that is New York City.

Christina Hanson (pg. 17): Christina has done work for Shanda the Panda (Shanda Fantasy Arts) and also handles the pencilling chores on the new "Ebin & May" serial in Furrlough. Her color work can be seen at conventions around the country.

James M. Hardiman (pg. 18): James is the undisputed king of adult comics, with numerous stories in Genus, and no fewer than three Genus Spotlight issues dedicated to his Skunkworks Girls. Ever versatile, he also self-publishes Caterwaul, Inc., a non-adult title, and he has more comic stories in the works. He enjoys working on his motorcycle and pretending to be Amish when he's not drawing.

Michael Higgs (pg. 19: Michael has had work in countless furry fanzines, and recently made his Genus debut. He is well-known for his curvy, soft beauties and is a much-sought-after pinup artist.

Shon Howell (pg. 20): A fixture in the funny animal/anthropomorphic field for more than ten years now, Shon has probably drawn more sexy cat-babes than anyone else in the world. His art and comic work has appeared in Furrlough, Genus and Milk, and he currently works as an editor at Antarctic Press.

Seisho Kenshin (pg. 21): Seisho Kenshin's pinup work has been seen in Furrlough and previous issues of Hit the Beach. He is kinda quiet and keeps to himself. He is currently working on building the ultimate computer for video capture, when he doesn't roam the country dispensing justice with his sword.

Daphne Lage (pg. 22): Daphne's intriguing artstyle and detailed linework have won her acclaim throughout the genre. She is currently working on "Tall Tails' with Jose Calderon, which is being serialized in Furrlough. She has also done work for CPM Comics and Antarctic Press, and has done several issues of Tall Tails through Vision Comics.

Dan Matanski (pg. 23): Dan works in the glamorous video game industry and has also occasionally done work in comics like the Ninja High School specials for Antarctic Press and previous issues of Hit the Beach. You want to know how the American versions of Pokemon got their names? Ask Dan!

Richard Moore (centerfold): Richard is not related to Mark Moore, but we've noticed all people with that last name can draw like the dickens. Richard has had work in Milk, Genus and A-Bomb (Anthill Comics), and is also the author of the fantasy series Far West (Antarctic Press) and the science fiction one-shot The Pound. He is also the writer/artist of the upcoming miniseries Deja Vu, starting in November!

Naginata Matsurino (pg. 26): Matsurino-san is the artist of the adult manga Wild Zoo, coming later this month! He has also had a short story appear in Genus. Matsurino-san is also a regular contributor to TRUMP's Book of the Beast doujinshi, as well as working on his own personal dousjinshi.

Daria McGrain (pg. 27): Daria has been a regular contributor to Milk, with her writing partner Sara M. Williams. This is her first appearance in Hit the Beach. Daria also helps with the inking chores on Saiko & Lavender (Anti-Ballistic Pixellations).

Gan Metaru (pg. 28): Gan is a Japanese game designer. His work has appeared in Tales of the Fehnnik, Genus and previous issues of Hit the Beach. He is very shy, but hopes American readers will enjoy his work.

Mark Moore (pg. 29): Mark is a talented artist who has done several Furrlough covers and stories, as well as a Genus short. He is currently working on the pulp-flavored miniseries Eureka with Brian Sutton. He is also a Hit the Beach regular. Expect more work from Mark in the future!

Phil Morrissey (pg. 30): The Ahrt Ghod Phil has done a ton of covers for Furrlough and Genus, as well as previous issues of Hit the Beach. He has also had comic work printed all over the place as well as done a ton of gaming illustrations. When not working on art, he likes to attempt to kill himself using decaying urban areas.

Bryce Nakagawa (pg. 31): Bryce is an artist who also works in the glamorous video game industry. He has also done work for Wild Life (Antarctic Press) and Furrlough, as well as several role-playing game books. He enjoys spam sushi, Coca-Cola, monkeys and football, though not all at the same time.

Jay Naylor (pg. 32): Jay has had several stories in Genus over the years, as well as illustrations in Furrlough. He plans to do more stories in the future, when not busy moving all across the southern United States.

Joe Rosales (Cover, pg. 33): Joe, the Art Guy, has been a regular contributor to Furrlough, Genus and the late Wild Life from Antarctic Press. He is the creator of the Wildlifers: Back-To-School Special. He enjoys Roman culture and good chips & queso.

William Ruzicka (pg. 34): William is the artist of the new "Time Venturer" series in Furrlough, sharing duties with writer Erick Melton. He has tons and tons of art on Yerf, and will be doing more comics than you can shake a stick at in the future! This is his first piece in Hit the Beach.

Marc Schirmeister (pg. 35): Marc is a well-known storyboarder for the animation industry. He is one of the founders of the funny animal APA Rowrbrazzle and has been active in the fandom since the late 1970's. He has had appearances in previous issues of Hit the Beach.

Ayumi Shimano (pg. 36): Shimano-san is a Japanese artist who is a member of TRUMP's Team Shuffle doujinshi group. A regular contributor to Book of the Beast, this is Shimano-san's American debut! We believe the character's name is "Cooky"!

Terrie Smith (pg. 37): Terrie is arguably one of the most popular funny animal/anthropomorphic artists working today. She is currently drawing the fan-favorite comic Havoc, Inc., written by Mark Barnard. She has also had work published too many other places to count and also sells her artwork across the country at conventions.

Diana X. Sprinkle (pg. 38): Diana is the artist of the comedic fantasy "Dragon Heaven" in Furrlough and "Justice" in Mangaphile. She is also working on Saiko & Lavender with Michael Vega for Anti-Ballistic Pixellations. Diana is a comic-drawing machine and she promises more work in the future!

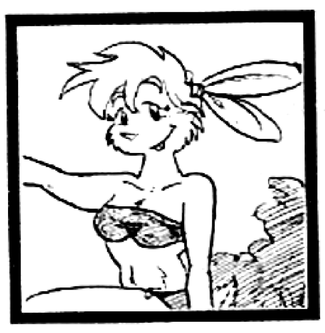

Brian Sutton (pg. 39): Brian-o has had stories in Furrlough and Genus since the start of both books, as well as covers and illustrations in both! He is currently working on the pulp science fiction miniseries Eureka with Mark Moore. Brian-o enjoys Pop-Tarts and Blue Bunny frozen treats.

Thor Thorvaldson Jr. (pg. 40): Thor is the artist of the comedy serial "Inventory Mistress Xiomara" in Furrlough, and has also had work in Milk. He's drawn several badgirl vampire babe books for Brainstorm Comics as well, but we don't tease him about them too badly! A regular contributor to the Antarctic Press swimsuit issues, this is Thor's first appearance in Hit the Beach.

TRUMP (pg. 41): TRUMP is a Japanese artist and the author of the manga Charm the Cat, in addition to many more. He is also a cover artist for Genus and has been in Hit the Beach before. His first full-length adult one-shot Luck of the Draw is being published by Radio this year! In his spare time he runs the Team Shuffle fanzine circle in Japan, a group dedicated to promoting funny animal/anthropomorphic artwork.

Kurt Wilcken (pg. 42): Kurt is an extremely prolific creator whose work has appeared in Furrlough, Genus, Wild Life (Antarctic Press), and many of the Ninja High School specials from Antarctic Press. He is also a regular contributor to many fanzines and is a very nice guy.

Pat Duke (production): Pat put this book together, even though computers scare him. He is currently undergoing aversion therapy for Quake III addiction and hopes to make a full recovery soon. Pat sometimes draws, but finds it hard to concentrate on non-moving targets now.

Elin Winkler (edits): Elin organized this book and made sure the pieces were all in order. She is hoping Pat will be cured of his Quake addiction soon, since she has more books she wants him to work on. She is currently working on making other people work and Tales of the Fehnnik.
